3 WHEREAS, DeKalb County's form of government is unique in the state of Georgia; and

4 WHEREAS, the local Act of the General Assembly which established this unique form of 11 WHEREAS, DeKalb County has been through many changes in the nearly 25 years since the 12 adoption of its form of government, and the time has come for another careful study to 13 determine if a reorganization of the county's government could provide a government more 14 representative of the county's citizens and more efficient in the delivery of government 15 services for the citizens of the county; and

16 WHEREAS, the citizens of DeKalb County would be well served if a distinguished
